WPSB No. 1075 of 2002

Hon'ble P.C. Verma, J.

(Delay Condonation Appln. No. 12329/06)
(Review Appln. No. 250/06)

Heard learned counsel for the applicant/petitioner on the application.

This review application had been moved by the applicant for reviewing the judgment and order-dated 10.09.2003 passed by this Court alongwith application for condonation of delay.

I have perused the applications supported by affidavits.

The grounds mentioned in the accompanying affidavit of the delay condonation application are not satisfactory. Hence, the delay in filing the review application is not condoned and the delay condonation application is accordingly rejected.

Consequently, the review application is also rejected.
